Black River wins regatta in Chicago

Teen sailors Morgan and Alex Kiss teamed to lead Black River Public School to victory at the inaugural Jimmy Talbot Memorial Regatta in Chicago.

Morgan and Alex Kiss sail out of the Macatawa Bay Yacht Club.

The Chicago Yacht Club's Belmont Harbor Station hosted the two-day regatta that drew 420 junior sailors from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Wisconsin.

A total of 19 teams competed in two divisions. They sailed HS 420 boats in a round-robin format.

Morgan Kiss teamed with Aaron Parach to win the 'A' Division, while Alex Kiss paired with Chloe Beighley for a runner-up finish in the 'B' division.

Regatta officials combined points from sailors' finishes to determine the standings for the two-person high school teams.-- Staff report
